

Lest We Forget

WORDS BY MICHAEL J REYNOLDS, MUSIC BY RHONDA MACKEN

CD VOL 1 TRACK 9

On Anzac Day we remember the people who died at Gallipoli in World War One. We also remember everyone who has fought in wars.

This song is slow and quiet. Close your eyes for a minute while you listen or sing.

Verse

1. Al - though you're get - ting on in years, - and mem' - ries seem to dis - ap - pear. - Some things will ne - ver fade a-way. Some mem' - ries will stay. There's one day in each year, you will not for-get. - If this year's your last year, we will not for-get. - One more par-ade. - One less dig-ger by - your side. One year you're march - ing, - the next year you ride. - Hold your head up high, hold your

Chorus

To Coda ⊕

Dm G/D Em Am

head up high. Lest we for-get. —

1. F G F G

Lest we for-get. — 2. It Lest we for-get. — The Bridge

Dm

sound of can - on roar - ing by. — The D°

smoke and fi - re cov - ered sky. — The

C/A

nights of ter - ror as you pray. —

G# G

Return to ⊕ then Coda ⊕

Some mem' - ries — will al - ways stay.

⊕

CODA F G

Lest we for-get. — (The Last Post is played)

2. It seems a long long time ago.
A young man far away from home.
Friends made and lost along the way.
Some mem'ries will stay.
Those who died, those who live, you will not forget.
If this year's your last year, we will not forget.

CHORUS

BRIDGE

3. At the closing of the day.
A grateful nation will rise to pray.
Some things will never fade away.
Some mem'ries will stay.
Not for one day, but always, we will not forget.
Your memory forever, we will not forget.

CHORUS

CODA

